Seven gifts of the holy spirit worksheet

If you sit down and think about it, there could probably be a long list of things that God gives us to make us better people. There are a whole series of gifts that allow us to achieve our dreams and overcome our greatest challenges, but based on the scriptures (Isa. 11:2-3) and the Church's teaching we know that there are seven gifts of the Holy Ghost: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, advice (just judgment), fortitude (courage), piety (reverence) and fear of the Lord (wonder and awe). This plan of lessons on the 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit will help students to recognize and appreciate the gifts that God considers most important and to understand how they can turn to the Holy Spirit for an increase in God's gifts, especially through the sacrament of Confirmation. Gifts of the objectives of the lesson of the Holy Spirit SWBAT list the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost. SWBAT recognize the gifts that have already been given to him the most. SWBAT establish connections between the gifts of the Holy Spirit and their personal life (especially their goals and dreams). FlashcardS Students create flashcards with each of the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost labeled on the one hand and synonyms and definitions on the other. Once they're done making cards, give them time to memorize gifts and their meanings with a friend. 4. Journaling While each of us receives the gifts of the Spirit in special ways to Confirmation, all of us have been given a share of these gifts by the grace of the Sacrament of Baptism and our daily prayer. Have students choose some or all of the gifts and write how they have used each gift positively in their lives lately. (Members: Use one of the worksheets in the seven worksheets of the religion teacher's seven Holy Spirit gifts to help students reflect on the gifts they have or need most in their lives right now.) 5. Class Activity Label different parts of the room with the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost. If you're cunning, create labels in advance that look like fireballs (or tongues of fire). Ask students to write a gift they would like to receive more from God on one side of a piece of paper and how they will use that gift to become a better person on the Side. Again, use cards modeled in fire languages or create them as a class project. 6. Rating On a blank card (exit cards) students list the seven gifts of the Holy Ghost by heart without looking at the whiteboard, their notes or the walls of the room.
